

Dear peasants,

After almost 2 and a half year of being your loyal food chain and delivering the greatest products to all people, it's time to reveal our true nature... We've been hiding this secret for a long time.... But now that one of our great leaders has taken over the server AND destroyed its protection against us we can finally make our dreams true.... Yup... Hold your hats kids... We're going to say the thing that will BLOW YOUR MIND! So prepare for it peasants... Because.... The biggest announcement since January will be.... announced... Here it comes. SpookJams is and has always been...

Oh yes, fools! Be afraid of the true mastermind behind the evil on Big Sister! Aedis Sinestra? Just a myth! The felons who got banned? Not even worse than a melon! Mister_ee? Just a amateur Disney villain! Hah! And don't believe us? Just look at this list of evil things we have done in the past years! Be afraid! Proceed with CAUTION!!!!

- We are responsible for the lack of other food chains on Big Sis, they were all weird and creepy so we bought them and refurbished them! They got what they deserved!
- We are responsible for the comeback of Aedis Sinestra! Yup! We paid for the scary ceremony! Surprised? We paid for your funeral too!
- We are responsible for the april fools jokes last year on our fan club! Yup! Forgot the fake little tiny hats for pets!
- We are responsible for the change of power in January... Yup! We scared Cia and Cay away! We're not only delicious! But scary too!
- We are also responsible for stealing your heart <3
- We are responsible for leaving you that free SpookJams coupon, forcing you to WALK to our restaurants and FORCING you to ENJOY our food!
- We are responsible for creating that amazing new rules list presented to you in January! We still have to enforce it though... We'll get to that soon!
- Ever lost something important in real life? Hah! We're behind that too!
- We also invented captcha! How evil is that?!
- We also created Youtube adds! Mwhahahaha!
- Oh BOY I think I'm scaring myself here D:
- :(
- Oh yes! We also like to put your TV remote (or anything else while we are at it...) OUT OF REACH!
- We regularly put a little rock in your shoe!
- We let tiny mosquitoes in your room while you are trying to sleep!
- And don't think your internet is safe! We like to pull it offline for 5 seconds every once in awhile!
- Do you use earbuds? Well we'll make them NEVER FIT
- We make sure that every chair you sit on has ONE leg $\frac{1}{4}$ inch shorter than the other ones!
- Hate sudden plots that go unanswered in TV shows, books and games? Yeah, we created them.
(You'll never find out how "The SpookJams Movie" ends fools!!!!)
- I think you've got the idea here, prepare for your Dutch exams peasants <3
